

“The true work of art is but a shadow of the divine perfection.”

- Michelangelo

Raku Teapot

Erin Essin Campbell

Erin, a resident of Buncombe County, is a ceramic artist. She uses texture and glazes to give her pieces the appearance of metal. She holds a BFA from Metropolitan State College of Denver with an emphasis in metalsmithing.

Katie Damien

A resident of Buncombe County, Katie is a filmmaker and photographer with a Bachelor of Arts in film production. She has worked as a freelance photographer since 1999 and enjoys traveling throughout the U.S. and abroad to capture images of the world.

Old Rome

Breathing Space

Mary Farmer

Mary, a new resident of Buncombe County, works in encaustics, adding a unique element through the use of watercolors. She holds a BFA from Georgia State University and has exhibited her work throughout the U.S.

Veronika Hart

Veronika Hart was born and raised in Tanzania, lived in Germany and New York, and is now a resident of Henderson County. Her interpretive work in oil is created almost entirely from her imagination and childhood memories of Africa.

Twig's Puzzle

Green Basket

Kari Weaver Hopkins

Residing in Yancey County, Kari works with stoneware clay, cutting and combining parts to create whole pieces. She holds a BFA in Ceramics from Clemson and has exhibited and taught art classes throughout North Carolina.

Maggie & Freeman Jones

Maggie and Freeman, residents of Buncombe County met in 1976. Maggie grew up in Connecticut, Freeman in North Carolina. They share a love for pottery and have created functional and decorative pottery together for more than thirty years.

Red

Sand, Sea and Sky

Jerry LaPoint

A graduate of Pratt Institute in New York City with a focus on painting and illustration, Jerry now lives in Henderson County. He has exhibited his works, which include oils, acrylics and mixed media pieces, throughout North and South Carolina.

Harry McDaniel

Harry, a resident of Buncombe County, is primarily a self-taught artist and has experimented with many forms, materials, and techniques. His sculptures reveal his fascination with motion, like three-dimensional snapshots of moving objects.

A Slight Warpage Problem

Christmas Tree Worms

Bill Miller

Bill lives in Buncombe County and travels the world to pursue his love for the environment and photography. He holds degrees in vertebrate zoology and wildlife management, and is a former wildlife photographer and teacher.

Barbara Nerenz-Kelley

A resident of Buncombe County, Barbara from Germany draws from her diverse creative background in her painting. Beside acrylics, she uses a variety of materials – graphite, marble dust, ashes and more – to communicate her message.

Red River Scream

B-29 Engine Nacelle

Max Poppers

Max, a professional photographer residing in Buncombe County, has been interested in photography since he was a child. He has an MA in Art and enjoys photographing the abstract nature of aircraft and other found objects.

“True art takes note not merely of form but also of what lies behind.”

-Mahatma Gandhi

“An artist cannot fail. It is a success to be one.” - Charles Horton Cooley

About the Program

ASHEVILLE REGIONAL AIRPORT AUTHORITY IS PLEASED TO DISPLAY THE ARTWORK OF THE REGION IN OUR GALLERY ON A ROTATING BASIS.

ART IN THE AIRPORT HAS RECEIVED NATIONAL MEDIA ATTENTION ON MSNBC, USA TODAY AND THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, WE ARE CURRENTLY EXPANDING THE PROGRAM TO DISPLAY ARTWORK IN OTHER AREAS OF THE TERMINAL.

FOR INFORMATION ON HOW TO APPLY, PLEASE VISIT WWW.FLYAVL.COM AND VIEW THE "HOW TO APPLY & HOW TO BUY" BROCHURE, OR CONTACT THE MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT AT (828) 684-2226.

About this Exhibit

ASHEVILLE REGIONAL AIRPORT AUTHORITY PROUDLY PRESENTS OUR NEWEST ART IN THE AIRPORT EXHIBIT. CURRENTLY FEATURED IS THE WORK OF ELEVEN LOCAL ARTISTS, INCLUDING SCULPTURE, PHOTOGRAPHS, OIL PAINTINGS, ENCAUSTICS, CLAY AND MORE. YOU'LL FIND ARTWORK IN GALLERY, IN THE NEWLY RENOVATED BAG CLAIM AREA, AND IN THE LOWER LEVEL ROTUNDA PAST SECURITY. AND CHECK OUT THE CHILDREN'S ART DISPLAY OPPOSITE THE GALLERY. WE WELCOME YOU TO EXPLORE THE TERMINAL AND ENJOY THE EXHIBIT!

For more information or to apply for
Art in the Airport:

web: www.flyavl.com

e-mail: art@flyavl.com

phone: (828) 684-2226

Asheville Regional Airport
61 Terminal Drive, Suite 1
Fletcher, NC 28732

A Rotating Art Exhibit
Spotlighting Western
North Carolina Artists

Exhibit Dates:
March 13 – June 30, 2009